

The Credit Union Prepaid Reloadable Debit Card

CUMONEY, a turnkey agent program for credit unions

As an agent program, ICUL Service Corporation has set all the fees on the card and will assume all the fraud risk associated with the program. There is no credit union liability and no credit union fraud exposure.

With the CUMONEY Program, your credit union will be able to earn additional revenue by charging a retail fee for issuing the card and will also earn on-going revenue per active card.

Custom programs are also available where your credit union would take on the fraud risk, determine any fees to charge your members and earn the interchange income.
